The Deserted Village.

BY I. M. 'Twas the ninth sultry morning in August, And the sky wore its prettiest hue. But the Bloomfielders eagerly hurried To look upon something more blue.

To gaze on the foam-crested waters, Whose secrets no mortal can tell; To sail to Iona's fair island With the men of the H. & L.

It seemed like the Sabbath in Bloomfield, Except when an old farmer's cart. Drove up to the fountain's cool waters and thou off toward Newark did start.

Deep silence reigned over the village, All business places were closed, And the dogs thinking time had deceived the Lay down on their door-sills and dozed.

But one shaggy dog who has haunted The truck-house for many a day. Cast one lonesome glance round the Cent Then whined and walked sadly away How slowly the moments were number

For the day seemed loath to depart, But it ended at last beneath storm-clouds. Where the lightning-flash vividly darts. And now all the pleasure is over,

Its memory alone can remain,

The web that was dropped is relifted.

The Famous New Book, "Darkness and Daylight," or Lights and Shadows of New York Life.

In this new and superbly illustrated work a noble Christian woman tells the thrilling story of her personal experience in Gospel, temperance, mission and rescue work in a great city. No recent publication is commanding so much attention nor has any other called forth such ringing words of "God-speed" from ministers and eminent women. It has been preached about from famous pulpits, read by tens of thousands of subscribers, and made the subject of many a clergyman's Sunday evening lecture. Its authorship is fourfold, its four authors being no less than :- Mrs. Helen Campbell, Rev. Lyman Abbott, D. D., Col. Thomas W. Knox, and Inspector Thomas Byrnes, Chief of the New York Detective Bureau.

Mrs. Campbell, the principal writer, certainly was a woman commissioned of God, and "In His Name" spent many years as a city missionary literally "In Darkest New York." What a wonderful work she did. How devoted and blessed her labors were. It is a story never to them the game. Yought and Robotham be forgotten. This unique volume pre- occupied the points for Bloomfield and sents these thrilling experiences of Christian endeavor with the hundreds of pathetic and amusing scenes that were great city by day and by night "As Seen by a Woman"; it shows the power of the Gospel to redeem souls from the lowest twelve base bits. The Bloomfields depths; it gives striking testimonies of the redeemed; and from all these rich and varied experiences it draws living truths for head and heart that are worth to any reader ten times the price of the book. Mrs. Campbell's account of rescue-work is full of wonderfully touching incidents. Stranger stories are here told than romance ever dreamed of, every one of them drawn from real life by a woman's hand. In every chapter she weaves in anecdote after anecdote, incident after incident, story after story, and the reader's attention is held breathless to the end of the volume, "Strange but most suggestive is the fact," says Bishop Coxe in warmly commending this volume "that Christ is to be vis-ited in these dens and dives; there are those whom He will bear in mind when Kane, 3b.

says: 'Ye did it not to Me. Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott's life-long interest in City Mission work, and his personal share in that work, pre-emiently fitted him to write for this book. In his introduction to it be says :-"My interest in these phases of city life dates from my college days. Flom that day to thisover a third of a century-I have continued the studies then begun, and the subject of this book has been one of the great subjects of my study

No appeal from temperance advocates can do more to promote the cause of temperance than the thrilling scenes and incidents so well described; at least so say Mrs. Mary A. Livermore and Miss Frances E. Willard.

One of the most absorbingly interesting portions of the book is that written by Inspector Byrnes giving the ripe experience of thirty years of detective life. Many of the startling revelations he makes are taken from his private diary.

They have never before been published. This facinating volume is indeed a wonderful tale of Christian love and faith, all alive with intense and striking reality. The best of it is that it is a pure and elevating book from beginning to end-a volume for the family circle. On this point the words of Rev. Dr. Twichell (who has a family of ten children) and Rev. Dr. Magoun, President Iowa College, are worth quoting here: Dr. Twichell writes, - My wife says that she is going to set our young people on the book right off, for the good it will do them '; and President Magoun says,-" My family finds, where other books on our shelves lack interest, this one always holds and rewards attention." It contains 252 superb engravings, Park and Ocean Grove, by way of the every one of them made from photographs taken from life, mostly by flash light. Every face is a portrait, every scene a a stern reality. In looking at these splendid illustrations the reader sees at a glance just how Gospel work is carried on by day and by night by rescue bands;

he is shown strange sights in out of the way places that are rarely or never seen by the casual visitor; be is taken into cheap lodging houses and cellars; into the homes of the poor; futo newsboys' lodging houses; into the police and detective departments, etc.-nothing seems to be omitted.

We do not know when 740 pages have given us more genuine pleasure. If we speak warmly of the book, it is because it richly deserves it. It is sold only by agents, and is meeting with an enormous sale. Agents who introduce such a work ought to be corlially welcomed. A better work has certainly never come to our table. It will be read over and over again by old and young, with ever increasing pleasere and leating profit

Nice gentlemen, can in pretty, lightgray uniforms paid a visit to Montclair last Saturday afternoon. Their object in going there was to play a game of ball with the Athletic Club of the latter place. The Alphas was the name on the Brooklyn men's shirts, and how they could play ball! Until the ninth inning not a Montelable had crossed the home plate; neither had they been hitting Pitcher Bounnames s little bit. In this inning, with one out, Leonard and Schalk of the fontelairs made safe hits. Pitcher Belly then came to the bat and made a hit two-bagger, a scoring Leonard. Schalk attempted to score, but was clearly thrown out at the home plate. Umpire Higgins, however, thought otherwise, and declared the runner safe. This tied the score. The Alphas immediately left the field, but much to their credit did so without abusing the umpire. Their manager ordered all. them to play ball. The game was continued and the Montclairs succeeded in getting a man around the bases in the fifteenth inning and winning a game which they had previously lost. The following is the score by innings:

The Bloomfield B. B. Club journeyed to Belleville last Saturday and were defeated by the T. A. B. nine of that place. The Bloomfields outbatted their opponents, but their errors and wild throwing lost morning. There will be no evening ser-Sullivan and Cross for the T. A. B. Vought played his usual fine game, striking out nine men, and only four hits packed into them; it portrays life is a were made off of him. Perry deserves 10.30 A/M Eren song, 5 H M. credit for his splendid game at first base The Bloomfields touched Sullivan up for complain of the lack of encouragement, and think that if some liberal persons should come forward with a subscription they might have enclosed grounds and make the team a drawing card for the town. Following is the score of the game by innings:

Earned runs. Bloomfield 2; stolen bases, Lewis. Robotham. Martin, Moran, Haggerty; double plays, Quinn and Sullivan; base on called balls. off Vought 1; struck ont by Vought 9, Sullivan 3; passed balls. Robotham. Time of game 2:05. Umpire; Wallace Cadmus.
